The Spirit of Giving

If you are like many, the last weeks of the year bring regrets of dietary choices during the holidays, resolutions for the New Year, and of course, a mailbox of envelopes from non-profit organizations seeking your financial support. Pueblo Community Health Center Foundation doesn't want to be just another entity requesting a donation. We do, however, hope you'll consider the following benefits of donating to a charity of your choice before the end of the year:

1. Giving to charity makes our community a better place to live by helping to provide goods or services to people who otherwise might not have access to them.
2. The gift of time, such as that given by our Pueblo Community Health Center employees and families in the photo above, is immeasurable. Our volunteers help Pueblo Community Health Center Foundation host our successful fundraiser every October (details inside). Without them, the event would not be possible.
3. Ultimate satisfaction comes from helping those in need—not just having “stuff.” Consider what your gift means to someone who would go without food, shelter, or health care if not for your kindness. If you are fortunate in your life, donating to charity gives you the ability to give back.
4. Your acts of generosity, when witnessed by others, can motivate and inspire countless others to follow your example
5. At the very least, gifts to nonprofit charities will be rewarded by the government in the form of a reduced tax liability. This makes for a win-win situation for both the donor and the recipient. Check with your tax advisor for full details or restrictions.

Pueblo Community Health Center is grateful for the opportunity to provide primary health care to those in need in our community. Your interest in our organization and mission keeps us working to improve every year. We wish you and your family a happy and healthy 2019.

Thanks for being part of our successful 2018!

Letter from the CEO

Dear Friends:

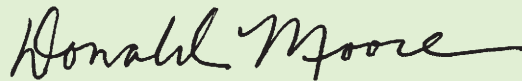

You may recall in a prior edition a description of our Communicate with H.E.A.R.T. program, which is our intentional effort to serve patients, the community, and each other according to our Core Values. For example, we are teaching staff skills how to detect the patient's feelings behind a complaint and then respond with empathy and build trust.

This fall we have implemented H.E.A.R.T. "Chats." These are 15 minutes sessions in each department, facilitated by a co-worker. The groups dive into a scenario in which participants identify patient needs and determine how to assist according to our Core Values. We have offered four Chat sessions, and attendance exceeds 95%. I have attended Chats twice with the enrollment department, once with the pharmacy staff, and once with the medical records folks. The interaction in these sessions is excellent, and even uplifting. The gift of the Chats is that it reminds each employee of their capacity to act according to the Core Values—dignity, respect, compassion, integrity, quality service. I know I feel good after these sessions and all the Chats I have attended include tons of laughter and affirmation towards one another.

The gift the H.E.A.R.T. program is giving is the affirmation of everyone's natural ability to serve others. I think we are understanding that we don't just provide a "service" but that we are "serving." The Chats are bringing this thought to the tops of our minds. That's a blessing.

Thank you for your support and the blessing you have been to PCHC's mission...to provide quality primary health care to those in need. I hope you have a wonderful holiday season.

Wishing you good health,

Donald Moore, CEO
Pueblo Community Health Center

Giving to PCHC Changes Lives

For 34 years, PCHC has served the health care needs of the people of Pueblo and Huerfano counties, regardless of a patient's ability to pay. If you choose to contribute, it enables us to continue to offer expanded services that include primary medical, dental, behavioral health, and pharmacy services. If you want to help us perpetuate our mission, we invite you to make a contribution to Pueblo Community Health Center Foundation.

All funds raised will be allocated to our Foundation for future health center needs. Any donation is appreciated and no gift is too small. Your support will make a difference in the lives of the people who trust their health needs to our providers.

If you would like to learn more about naming opportunities or planning for larger gifts, please contact Laura Kelly, Chief Development and Foundation Officer at (719) 543-8718 x 152 or email lkelly@pueblochc.org. Thank you for caring about those in need.
